Principal shows commitment to students achieving their best

My name is Lorena Carrillo, the new principal at Bret Harte Elementary. It is my privilege and honor to join Bret Harte and the Curtis Park community. I am looking forward to an exciting year of learning and growing with our students and working with our professional staff and you, our parents and community members.

My main goal is to ensure that every student is provided the highest quality of education possible in a safe and supportive learning environment. Working together as a team with our staff and parents, I am committed to helping each student achieve their very best. Every student is valued and worthy of our best effort.

I also look forward to building partnerships with the community of Curtis Park. I strongly believe that it takes a community to build a school. I welcome you to come by the school and visit at some future school/community event.

I look forward to meeting everyone!

Volunteer to be a lunch buddy

A new program is being launched this year that opens up an opportunity for adults in our community to make a real, lasting and positive change in the lives of elementary school students, by sharing their lunch hour with a "Lunch Buddy," once a week.

Training and ongoing support will be provided. For more information, contact Elizabeth-sterba@scusd.edu

Delta Workshop: New gallery on 21st Street is feast for eyes

Shop owner Bridget Lewis shows the locally handmade scarves she sells. She will present an open house from 10 a.m.–8 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 31, with food trucks, live music and a free block-printing workshop from 2–5 p.m.

Step inside Delta Workshop and it's hard to decide what to look at first. Browse greeting cards or hand-printed apparel and tea towels, admire handmade ceramic dishes, just after the artisan jewelry or ponder the fine art lining the exterior walls.

Delta Workshop owner Bridget Lewis has carefully arranged this feast for the eyes. With an education in fine arts and experience as a project manager in the corporate world, Bridget decided to combine her passion for art and management skills to create a space "where I would want to hang out." In selecting the items for sale, Bridget focuses on local artists, items she finds inspiring and things she would want to own.

Delta Workshop is at 21st Street and First Avenue. Bridget chose the location after looking for space in Midtown, Curtis Park and Land Park. A South Land Park resident, she wanted a short commute. Ultimately, she was drawn to the corner spot for the natural light that spills in from two walls of windows.

Bridget plans to have a new show each month. Paintings by Francis Marin will be on display until Sept. 6. Paintings by Davis artist Lauren Brandy will be on display from Sept. 14–Oct. 4.

Bridget also maintains a blog highlighting artists, products and workshops.

For details on upcoming workshops, shows and items for sale, visit www.deltaworkshopsac.com. Delta Workshop is open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday to Friday, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. most Saturdays, and until 8 p.m. on Second Saturdays.
